2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Scoil Naomh Erc is a coeducational primary school with a Catholic Ethos under the patronage of Bishop Ray Browne.

"Catholic Ethos" in the context of a Catholic primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic Church, which aims at promoting:

- (a) the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, a living relationship with God and with other people; and
- (b) including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects; and
- (c) a philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus; and
- (d) the formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith;

and which school provides religious education for the pupils in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, and/or such ethos and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of Scoil Naomh Erc shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

The ethos of our school is Catholic and Christian. It is based on the Christian philosophy of society in Ireland. We have our set of values that tell us that each pupil is created in God's image that he/she has a life to lead to the best of his/her ability and a soul to be saved. We believe that all children are equal in God's eyes and each is entitled to an equal chance of obtaining optimum personal fulfilment. We equally recognise the diversity of beliefs, values and aspirations of all religious and cultural groups in our community.

Our school will be a very important agent along with the home, the church, and the community in the development of each child. Every effort will be made to ensure that the child's all-round development is healthy and harmonious.

Note for Parents: the inclusion of the above wording was mandated by the Education Admission to Schools, Act 2018

Scoil Naomh Erc is a school which has established one class with the approval of the Minister for Education and Skills, which provides an education exclusively for students with a category or categories of special educational needs specified by the Minister and may refuse to admit to the class a student who does not have the category of needs specified.

4. Categories of Special Educational Needs catered for in the school/special class

Scoil Naomh Erc with the approval of the Minister for Education and Skills has established one ASD (Autistic Spectrum Disorder) Class at Scoil Naomh Erc Primary School.

These classes are for children:

- who have the potential to integrate into a mainstream, age appropriate class.
- The maximum class size is 6 pupils.

We wish to provide a broad curriculum which focuses on the abilities and strengths of each child while supporting his/her areas of need. We will strive to enhance the communicative and social skills of the children in the ASD class.
